Residence Life

Policy on Summer Housing

-2014-

Rates:

Summer housing rates are as follows:
$990 – Entire summer (full 12 weeks)
$82.50 – Weekly
$11.79 – Daily

Eligibility*:

1) Any Washington College student who is working for a College office for at least 25 hours per week is eligible for housing. First priority will be given to students whose home address falls outside of 35 miles of Washington College. Verification of employment must be provided from the College supervisor.

2) Summer housing is available to students (completing internships or significant academic courses of study), interns, or staff part of a research grant living outside of 35 miles to the College. Supporting documentation must be received from the appropriate department head and approved by the Associate Dean of Students / Director of Residence Life before housing may be assigned. Housing may be available for other students living within a 35-mile range on a first-come, first serve basis, depending on availability.

3) Students enrolled at other colleges but enrolled in either a summer academic program or a formal internship offered by WC may be considered for summer housing. Current high school students or students recently graduated from high school are not eligible for housing. No student under the age of 18 is permitted to live on-campus under any circumstance.

4) Students must be in good judicial standing with the College in order to be considered for housing.

5) Recently graduated students working on-campus FOR THE SUMMER ONLY are eligible for the summer housing program. Recent graduates employed by the College in exempt or non-exempt staff positions are not eligible.

6) Students will sign a summer housing contract and are expected to abide by Washington College policy during the summer months. Students found responsible for violating housing/College policy during their tenure may lose their SUMMER housing eligibility and face disciplinary sanctions, including loss of on-campus employment.

7) Students must submit a $100.00 damage deposit. This amount may be refundable at the end of the summer session, provided no damage is done in the room and the student owes no money to the college. Any damages in excess of $100.00 will be billed to the student.

Availability of rooms*:

Summer housing is available in Chester Hall until August 9, 2014. All students must vacate by this date to allow Buildings and Grounds adequate time to prepare the building for Fall residents. Students may move in up to 24 hours prior to the start of their internship/work on campus and must vacate within 24 hours after their internship/work ceases.
