

Program Requirement Worksheet for International Studies Majors

Use this sheet to track your progress and/or to plan for completing the 15 courses and other requirements for the major.

Note: Up to six “general education/distribution” courses may be satisfied while fulfilling major requirements.

For more information, visit: <http://is.washcoll.edu> – or come speak to Prof. Oros, Director of International Studies.

	Semester Completed		Semester Completed
*ANT 105	_____	*POL 104	_____
*ECN 111	_____	*ECN 218 (fall only)	_____
*HIS 203,204,205,or 206 (circle which taken) [Prior to Fall 2016 these were numbered 101-104] _____
		Course Number &amp; Semesters Completed
* Foreign language: through 200 level at WC, or _____ one year at WC plus one semester of language abroad, or two semesters of language abroad
			Semester Completed
* INT’L BUS/ECN/IPE : BUS 310 or 311 or ECN 410 or 411 or POL 375 (circle which taken) _____
* THEORIES OF INT’L POLITICS : POL 201 (fall only) or POL 371 or 374 (spring only) (circle which taken) _____
* INT’L STUDIES SEMINAR : INT 491 (fall only, sr. year) _____
		Course Title &amp; Semester Completed
* 5 additional upper-level IS courses at WC or abroad (1) _____
(typically at least 3 are taken abroad) (2) _____
(3) _____ (4) _____ (5) _____
		Location &amp; Semester Completed
* Study abroad : one semester is required, two are encouraged: _____
* Experiential learning requirement : one experience is required (intensive, semester-long, or summer) – such as an internship (credit or non-credit), participation in a model United Nations simulation (together with the 2-credit course), or additional study abroad; opportunities available from the Global Education Office, the Washington Center, Hansard Program, or private arrangements with the help of the Director of IS.
- Your experience/dates: _____
* Senior capstone credit (4 credits in your final semester at WAC); Semester: _____
Advisor(s)/Title: _____

Required components for a regional concentration: (open to majors and non-majors)

– Advisors: Africa (Dr. Shad), East Asia (Dr. Oros), Europe (Dr. Black), Latin America (Dr. Wade), Near East (Dr. Shad)

- * Two introductory IS courses – choice of: ANT 105, ECN 111, HIS 203/204/205/206, POL 104
- * Two courses on the region while at WAC – consult with your concentration advisor to choose
- * Two courses on the region while abroad (or a WAC summer program + 1 extra course at WAC)
- * Study abroad in the region for a semester or short-term program + study of language of the region
- * Submission of one research-based paper on the region (that may be a paper written for a course)

Required components for the Global Business concentration: (open to majors and non-majors)

– see concentration advisor, Dr. Michael Harvey, for complete details.

- * Two introductory IS courses – choice of: ANT 105, ECN 111, HIS 203/204/205/206, POL 104
- * Three courses related to global business while at WAC – see the concentration advisor to choose
- * Two courses related to global business while studying abroad, or a short-term global business-related WAC summer program + 1 extra global business-related course at WAC
- * Submission of one research-based paper on global business (that may be a paper written for a course)

Required components for the Peace & Conflict Studies concentration: (open to majors and non-majors)

– see concentration advisor, Dr. Christine Wade, for complete details.

- * POL 201: Theories of Peace and Conflict (offered each fall)
- * Two courses on “philosophical approaches and practical applications” from an approved list.
- * One course exploring contemporary conflict from an approved list.
- * Two courses on the structural causes of violence and conflict from an approved list.
- * One experiential learning exercise or senior capstone related to peace and conflict.