Program Requirement Worksheet for International Studies Majors

Use this sheet to track your progress and/or to plan for completing the 14 courses and other requirements for the major. For more information, visit: http://is.washcoll.edu – or come speak to Prof. Oros, Director of International Studies.

Semester	Completed	Semester Completed
.b. A. 3. TITL. 4. O. #	*POL 104
*ECN 111	*ECN 218 ((fall only)
*HIS 101,102,103,or	104 (circle which taken – from AY11 incomin
		Course Number & Semesters Completed
* Foreign language: tl	nrough 200 level at WC, or
one year at WC plus of	one semester of language abroad, or	two semesters of language abroad Semester Completed
* BUS 310 or 311 or E	CN 410 or 411 or POL 375 (circle whi	ich taken)
* POL 201 (fall only) or	POL 371 or 374 (spring only) (circle wh	ich taken)
* IS Seminar: INT 49	1 (fall only, sr. year)
		Course Title & Semester Completed
* *	evel IS courses at WC or abroad	(1)
(typically at least 3	are taken abroad)	(2)
(3)	(4)	(5)
		Location & Semester Completed
* Study abroad: one s	emester is required, two are encour	raged:
an internship (credit or course), or additional s	non-credit), participation in a model tudy abroad; opportunities availabl	equired (intensive, semester-long, or summer) — su United Nations simulation (together with the 2- te from the Office of Int'l Programs, the ements with the help of the Director of IS.
_	ence/dates:

I components for a regional concentration: (open to majors and non-majors)

- Advisors: Africa (Dr. Shad), East Asia (Dr. Oros), Europe (Dr. Pears), Latin America (Dr. Wade), Near East (Dr. Shad)
- * Two introductory IS courses including ANT 105, ECN 111, HIS 101/102/103/104, POL 104
- * Two courses on the region while at WAC consult with your concentration advisor to choose
- * Two courses on the region while abroad (or a WAC summer program + 1 extra course at WAC)
- * Study abroad in the region for a semester or short-term program + study of language of the region
- * Submission of one research-based paper on the region (that may be a paper written for a course)

Required components for the Global Business concentration: (open to majors and non-majors)

- see concentration advisor, Dr. Alvin Drischler, for complete details.
- * Two introductory IS courses including ANT 105, ECN 111, HIS 101/102/103/104, POL 104
- * Three courses related to global business while at WAC see the concentration advisor to choose
- * Two courses related to global business while studying abroad, or a short-term global business-related WAC summer program + 1 extra global business-related course at WAC
- * Submission of one research-based paper on global business (that may be a paper written for a course)

Required components for the Peace & Conflict Studies concentration: (open to majors and non-majors)

- see concentration advisor, Dr. Christine Wade, for complete details.
- * POL 201: Theories of Peace and Conflict (offered each fall)
- * Two courses on "philosophical approaches and practical applications" from an approved list.
- * One course exploring contemporary conflict from an approved list.
- * Two courses on the structural causes of violence and conflict from an approved list.
- * One experiential learning exercise or senior capstone related to peace and conflict.