

Application for a Regional or Global Business Concentration
Washington College International Studies Program

Directions: Please complete fully this application, attach a copy of the concentration paper listed below, and submit the package to Ms. Cindy Licata, faculty secretary in Goldstein 224, by the spring advising day of your graduation year.

Applications submitted after this date may result in delays to the concentration being noted on your permanent transcript and to a certificate of the concentration(s) being issued.

* If you are seeking multiple concentrations, please use a separate form for each – please note that you may not count the same course for credit towards multiple regional concentrations beyond the 100-level.

* A separate application is required for the Peace and Conflict concentration – see is.washcoll.edu/concentrations.php
