Application for a Peace and Conflict Concentration
Washington College International Studies Program

Directions: Please complete fully this application, attach a description of your experiential learning exercise or SCE Abstract, and submit the package to Dr. Christine Wade in Daly 203, by the spring advising day of your graduation year.

Applications submitted after this date may result in delays to the concentration being noted on your permanent transcript and to a certificate of the concentration(s) being issued.

* A separate application is required for regional and global business concentrations – see is.washcoll.edu/concentrations.php

Your name: ________________ First semester@WAC: ______ Intended graduation year: Spring 20__

Email: ________@washcoll.edu Major(s): ________________________________________________

Please indicate the course number and semester/year you completed the following requirements:

POL 201 Theories of Peace and Conflict: Fall / Spring 20__

TWO course in the philosophical approaches and practical applications of peace and peace processes. Courses in this category include religious approaches to our conceptions of peace and those focusing on the resolution of conflict and peacebuilding. Students are required to take either POL 373, POL 374, or POL 386 and any additional course in this category which includes: PHL 111, PHL 112, PHL 225, PHL 235, PHL 335, PHL 416

1. ______________________________________________________________________ 2. ______________________________________________________________________

ONE course exploring contemporary conflict. Students are required to take one course exploring area studies of conflict-prone regions. Courses in this category include: HIS 360, HIS 371, HIS 381, HIS 383, HIS 392, POL 347, POL 351, POL 356, POL 348, POL 382, POL 388

1. ______________________________________________________________________

TWO courses on the structural causes of violence and conflict, including inequality, poverty, racism, repression and demographic stresses. Students are required to take either POL 341, POL 342, or POL 371, and any additional course in this category which includes: ANT 320, ECN 218, PHL 226, PHL 414, POL 341, POL 342, POL 371, SOC 221, SOC 240:

1. ______________________________________________________________________ 2. ______________________________________________________________________

Description of the experiential learning exercise or your Senior Capstone Experience title (& attached abstract):

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________