AN AUDIO-GUIDED TOUR OF CHESTERTOWN’S HISTORIC WATERFRONT

Presented by the C.V. Starr Center for the Study of the American Experience at Washington College; researched, written, and performed by Washington College students, faculty, and staff.

TOURS ARE AVAILABLE

Friday afternoons: 12:00 - 4:00 p.m.
Saturdays: 11:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.
Closed on college holidays

FREE OF CHARGE

Reservations to take the tour at other times may be made by calling 410-810-7161. Please visit starrcenter.washcoll.edu for more information.
STEP BACK IN TIME into the world of 18th-century America, and walk in the footsteps of sailors, adventurers, and slaves. This 45-minute audio-guided tour of the Chestertown waterfront and the circa-1746 Custom House uses music, reenactments, and firsthand accounts of life in a busy colonial port, bringing visitors into an America on the eve of revolution.

TOURS BEGIN AT

THE CUSTOM HOUSE (in red below)
101 S. WATER STREET, CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND