

THE

PRESIDENTIAL FELLOWS

G. Washington

WASHINGTON COLLEGE

What if your spark burns a little brighter,

your commitment to work hard goes a little deeper,
your dreams—whatever they may be—drive you a little farther?

Every year, Washington College seeks out exceptional students like you and offers them an invitation to join the Presidential Fellows. It's our way of honoring that distinction in you, and it opens to the door to a range of benefits that can fast track you to undergraduate and post-graduate success. And, you can have a lot of fun with other students like you.

As a Presidential Fellow, you'll get priority course enrollment for your first two years; early meetings with your faculty advisor who will help you plan your course load to maximum effect; and early peer mentoring by experienced and successful upperclass students who can help you navigate college to your best advantage. You'll have the option to room with other Presidential Fellows who share similar academic and social interests. We'll offer you targeted programs to give you a leg up in internships, externships, fellowships and other career-oriented opportunities, and you'll have special-guest status at activities sponsored by the College's chapters of Phi Beta Kappa, Omicron Delta Kappa and the Douglass Cater Society of Junior Fellows.

And the really fun part: You'll be invited to attend special events—such as dinner hosted by President Mitchell Reiss at his residence, the historic Hynson-Ringgold House—where you'll meet distinguished scientists, artists, and technology and business entrepreneurs. You'll go sailing for a day on the Chester River aboard Sultana, a replica 18th-century schooner, followed by a riverside picnic and fireworks. And throughout the year, you'll be invited on a series of trips to Mount Vernon, Independence Hall and the Constitution Center in Philadelphia, and Maryland's General Assembly.

Let us honor you.

Join Washington College's Presidential Fellows.
